

Elevator

Gliding tenaciously to achieve its adventurous goal,

The leathery creature with pouncing paws acts like it's the king on the jungle.

Panting heavily the brainy human like creature leaps constantly,

Its delicate tail dodging every object preventing him to receive the gold medal.

Viciously with its powerful incisors he pinches into his enemies.

Seeking sustenance with hunger he hunts for some food.

Admiring his reflection he scrutinized the changes in his body.

Instantly, the scene stopped as water holding its breath.

Enjoying every crumb of his special dinner,

His personality changes positively and he acts strangely.
